

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

*Knowing God
as Peter Did*

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster would crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future. "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster would crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster would crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster would crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, “Peter, do you love me?” “Yes, Lord, You know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my sheep.” Jesus never doubted Peter’s love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future. “... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church...” Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster would crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.

Peter's emotions wavered, like the tossing sea. His love for Jesus was enduring, yet in a moment of intense adversity, he denied knowing Him.

Peter wept bitterly. Every time the rooster crow, it brought back its painful memory. Jesus met with Peter after His resurrection. Each time he denied Him, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord, You know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." Jesus never doubted Peter's love; He needed Peter to know that He loved him when He reinstated him into the ministry of caring for His sheep. Jesus gave him a picture of his future: "... You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church..." Peter followed the Lord to the very end. He chose to be crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die as his Lord did.