

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

Knowing God in Loneliness

*Knowing God in
Loneliness*

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ... “*

*Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross
He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “*

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

*Without loneliness, we may never
capture the true heart of God.*

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ...”*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, " My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? "

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

*Without loneliness, we may never
capture the true heart of God.*

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ...”*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

*Without loneliness, we may never
capture the true heart of God.*

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ... “*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

Without loneliness, we may never capture the true heart of God.

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ... “*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, " My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? "

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

Without loneliness, we may never capture the true heart of God.

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ...”*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

*Without loneliness, we may never
capture the true heart of God.*

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ... “*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

Without loneliness, we may never capture the true heart of God.

*Many people experience loneliness,
that aching need for companionship or
feeling left out. We may ask ourselves,
“Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
and why art thou disquieted in me?
hope thou in God ... “*

Jesus understands loneliness, He sympathizes with your pain. On the cross He felt abandoned when He cried out, “ My God, My God , Why has thou forsaken me ? “

Sorrow weighs the heart down.

Without loneliness we may never experience such intimacy with God or fully appreciate His promise,

*“I will never leave you nor forsake
you...”*

Without loneliness, we may never capture the true heart of God.