Dear Soul,

God loves you. He loves you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to die for your sins.

Sins are when you disobey God. Maybe you feel He won't forgive your sins, for they are too great, and that you've strayed too far from His love.

The Scripture says, "...I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." Mark 2:17b

Soul, that includes you and me.

No matter how far into the pit you have fallen, God's grace is greater still.

The dirty, despondent soul He came to save. He'll reach down His hand to grasp yours.

God desires to have a personal relationship with you and to spend eternity with you in heaven.

Today, if you would like to begin a personal relationship with Him, pray from your heart a prayer such as the following:

"Oh, God, I'm a sinner. I'm sorry for my sins. Forgive me, Lord. I receive Jesus as my Savior. I trust Him as my Lord. Thank you for saving me. In Jesus' name, Amen."
